Coffee Varieties*

Organic Mexico - Our Mexican coffee comes from the high mountains, often from the Chiapas area or Oaxaca. Mexican coffee is something like a light white wine, delicate in body with a dry acidic taste. Light roast.

House - Combining rich earthy Sumatra with slightly acidic Costa Rica, full bodied with slight spicy acidity. Medium roast.

French Roast - Darker than Espresso, a bittersweet tang and no acidic taste.

Organic Colombian Decaf - Full body and rich taste with slight acidity. Processed with water, not chemicals.

*Coffee is a seasonal commodity, Some offerings may change dependent on availability. In these cases, we will substitute a high quality equivalent.
